If you want to find out whether your mind is being controlled by a narcissist, then keep reading...Narcissists are puppeteers aiming to turn you into a loyal and submissive pet. They present themselves as charming and caring people at first, but by the time they have secured you, their mask falls apart, and you get to see what was hiding behind. After some time, your self-esteem is drained; you would like to run, but you feel helpless at the same time. After being so viciously exploited by a person who seemed to really care about you, how could you ever trust again? Or maybe you just feel so deprived of your value that even if you know you're not happy, you can't imagine a life without your narcissist. That's the foundation of codependency. In this audiobook, you will discover: The narcissists' Achilles heel: science-based techniques to reverse engineer narcissists and hit them where it hurts the most. How to get over post-breakup stress disorder and trust again after being the victim of a narcissist. The sneaky ways your narcissistic partner tricks you into thinking they really cares about you. Why some people are attracted to narcissists like a magnet and how to break this toxic cycle. Will a narcissist ever really change for love? Why narcissists cheat so much, yours included. How narcissists manipulate your vision of the world into thinking that you need them. And much more... This audiobook is a formula that consists of the best approaches that I've studied, experimented with, and successfully taught over the course of eight years, so even if you're an HSP or an Empath with no clue of how to interpret people's behavior, you will be able to recognize narcissists quickly and reliably, build impregnable boundaries, put an end to codependency, and take your life back.
