"Pressestimmen 'Rather than a single, overarching account of ORLAN's oeuvre, what this book valuably provides is a range of texts exploring overlapping ideas, myriad mouthpieces returning to and unpacking certain qualities of ORLAN's practice in distinctly different ways, suturing and dissecting these into fascinatingly autonomous analyses. For me, quite purposefully, the undisciplined collection of texts in this rigorous and exciting volume morphs in a multitude of ways, much like the artist's own marvellously monstrous practice.' - Rachel Zerihan, Contemporary Theatre Review

Über den Autor und weitere Mitwirkende Simon Donger is a lecturer and a researcher in scenography and performance arts at Central School of Speech and Drama, University of London. Simon Shepherd is Deputy Principal (Academic) and Professor of Theatre at Central School of Speech and Drama, University of London.
