Depuis les aventures du Privé d'Hollywood, apparu durant la première moitié des années 1980, jusqu'à sa plus récente bande dessinée, en passant par la cultissime série "Pin-up", Philippe Berthet a montré un redoutable talent pour coucher sur papier des femmes vénéreuses aux formes généreuses qu'il transforme en héroïnes ou en victimes. Mais que dire quand il mène ses créatures de papier dans les jardins de l'illustration et de la peinture ? Son sens du cadrage, son esthétique vintage, son trait partagé entre courbes élégantes, lignes épurées et aplats noirs mystérieux donnent alors à ses créatures glamours une nouvelle vie. Ladies présente les plus belles illustrations de ce grand dessinateur de Dames.
