Since the establishment of the Catholic Church a myth has been told inside its cloistered environment. Those foolish enough to speak of it have been quickly extinguished. One man, an ex-communicated priest still speaks of it today. He preaches a time when man is ripe for Satan's picking. A time when the Dark One will embed his spirit into the most wicked. The Omega Butcher, one of the world's most sadistic serial killers, has escaped from a prison where escape is not possible. A prison that doesn't exist. He is not alone. The Dark One is with him while he hunt's God's Chosen, the one known as the Enlightened. He preys on the weak, gaining more of Satan's spirit with each "feeding". A battle foretold since the dawn of existence will be fought between the Dark One and God's Chosen. A battle that the myth says the Enlightened cannot win. At stake: everything. Hell on earth! In book two of the Trilogy of the Chosen, Brent Venturi must face his greatest fear, The Butcher in order to save the only victim that got away, the president's daughter, himself, and mankind in a battle where winner takes all. Welcome to a time known as the 'The Enlightenment'. A time of Cursed Presence. Praise for Trilogy of the Chosen Series: "...An intriguing and suspenseful read. It will have you eager to turn the page, then mad at yourself for rushing through it. J.M. LeDuc shows an unmatched talent in this debut novel."—Tanya Wright (www.tanyawright.net) "...Contains all the ingredients for instant success: memorable characters, a gripping storyline, spirituality, and romance. First in a trilogy, "Cursed Blessing" introduces us to Captain Brent Venturi, a mild-mannered librarian who, through faith and incredible acts of courage, manages to save his friends, save the world from a gang of criminal masterminds. J.M. LeDuc is a master storyteller and from the first page to the last, readers will be instantly hooked. Luckily, there are more books to come."—Caryn DeVincenti, Former Senior Editor, Fabulous 40ties Magazine"
